About Israel in Egypt

Written in England in 1738, Handel's Israel in Egypt combines the dramatic style of opera with the narrative style of oratorio. Lively orchestral writing, virtuoso solos and outstanding choruses vividly portray the great escape of the Israelites through the Red Sea. Performed in English by the 70-member VOICES Chorale with soloists Rochelle Ellis, soprano; Lucy Salome Sträuli, mezzo-soprano; Timothy Linwood, counter-tenor; and John Sergey, bass; plus chamber orchestra, under the direction of Dr. Lynne Ransom.

What other concertgoers have said about VOICES:
